

Photos from Menlo Charity Horse Show

Here are photos from the 41st annual Menlo Charity Horse Show, held Aug. 9-14 at the Menlo Circus Club in Atherton.

The show benefits the Vista Center for the Blind & Visually Impaired.

In 2010, the Menlo Charity Horse Show raised $450,000 for Vista Center, which serves clients from San Mateo, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, and San Benito counties.

Betsy Glikbarg, founder and long-time co-chair of the event, recently received a Lifetime Achievement Award from the U.S. Hunter/Jumper Association, Zone 10 (California and Arizona) for her dedication to equestrian activities.

Visit [<http://www.vistacenter.org> vistacenter.org or call 858-0202 for more information on Vista Center.

Visit menlohorseshow.com or call 701-0543 for more information about the horse show.

John French rides Sirius Black in a low hunter competition at the Menlo Charity Horse Show in Atherton on Aug. 9. Photo for the Almanac by Nick Gonzales		Jillian Wolf and her horse GF TradeMark received a 6.9 for their "run" in the Medium Pony Hunter Conformation, 2 foot 6 inches, at the Menlo Charity Horse Show in Atherton on Aug. 9. Photo for the Almanac by Nick Gonzales

Peyton Warren leads horse Strawberry Swirl in the Small Pony Hunter Conformation, placing second, on Tuesday, August 9, 2011. Photo for the Almanac by Nick Gonzales.		Seven-year-old Augusta Iwasaki pats her horse Tigerlilly on the nose for a job well done at the Menlo Charity Horse Show in Atherton last week. Augusta competed in the Small Pony Hunter Conformation class on Tuesday, Aug. 9. Photo for the Almanac by Nick Gonzales.