

Valley life

40 THE BUSINESS JOURNAL

sanjose.bizjournals.com

AUGUST 18, 2006

GIVING BACK

Louis Vuitton opens its doors for the Menlo Charity Horse Show

The Menlo Charity Horse Show Committee held a horseshow kick-off reception and equestrian trunk viewing Aug. 7 at the Stanford Shopping Center Louis Vuitton store. Over 100 people attended the reception. Sales from the event benefited the Vista Center for the Blind and Visually Impaired.

PHOTOS BY CHRIS A. JOHNSON

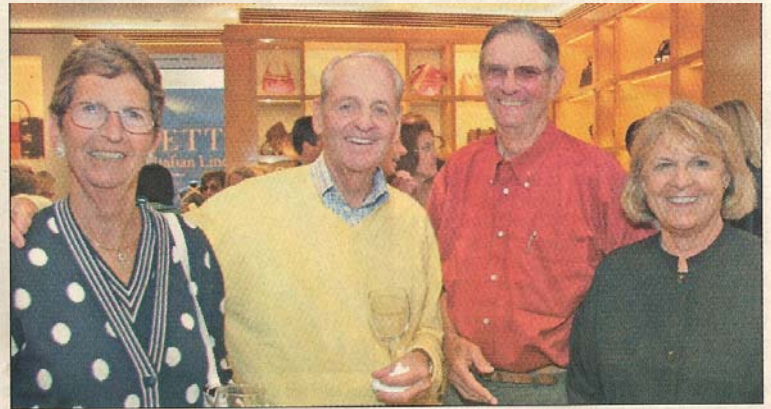

Showing off her horse head purse is Judi Beisler, left, committee member, Menlo Charity Horse Show; and friend, Barbara Hanna.

Looking at luggage is Pam Brandin, left, executive director, Vista Center; Pam Schwab and her husband Larry Schwab, attorney at law, Bialson, Bergen & Schwab and a board member with Vista Center and committee member with the Menlo Charity Horse Show.

Doris Turney, left, committee member; Betsy Blikbarg, center, founder of the Menlo Charity Horse Show; with Karen Watkins, vice president, West Coast, Louis Vuitton.

Attending the event are, from left, Nan Chapman, media liaison, Menlo Charity Horse Show and former mayor of Atherton; her husband, Ron Chapman, with Magnussen Dealership Group; Bill Parker, with Facilities Security; and his wife, Nancy, in charge of committees and deacons at Menlo Presbyterian Church.